They Bring Back but a Small Amount of Klondike Gold.

STORIES OF HARDSHIP AND WANT.

They Report a Scarcity of Food at Dawson City and the Prospect of Famine Before Spring—Many Returning to Civilization.

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 29.—Twenty-five men have arrived here on the City of Seattle direct from Dawson City. They were divided into two parties, the last one of which left Dawson Oct. 16. The party consisted of Thomas Magee, Sr., Thomas Magee, Jr., of San Francisco; Swift Water Bill Gales, Joe Boyle, William Huskins, F. Eckert, F. Robertson, H. Raymond, Bert Nason, John W. Brauer, W. H. Chambers, E. W. Pond, R. A. J. Gillespie, Thomas Wilson, P. McGraw, Jack Dalton, William Leek, Arthur Colina, Joseph Fairburn, J. Smith, T. Warren and Jim Stephenson.

They came out over the Dalton trail. They are reported to have between them $5,000 in drafts and $100,000 in goods.

All tell stories of a food shortage in Dawson that is almost a famine. The last person to leave Dawson was Jack Dalton. When Dalton left the steamer Bella had on board those loaded with.

It is said that the Bella's cargo consisted of whisky and billiard balls. She brought no provisions. The Canadian government mounted police captured the Bella and gave all who wished a free passage to the Yukon. The Bella is reported to have left about Oct. 12, with 200 men.

According to the statements made by members of the Dalton party, there is little to be made of the most serious kind this winter in Dawson. Billy Leek told one of the men in the party all of his own experience. He said that all the men who had been in Dawson since the fall famine. Men were gathering in groups and cursing with might and main the newcomers that were constantly arriving in the Klondike loaded with seemingly any provisions. The mounted police were offering free transportation to the grub players farther down the Yukon to Fort Yukon, but to the countless hundreds who had labored hard all through the summer accumulating a grubstake, the prospect was unenviable to say the least.

The men figured that it would take all their earnings in gold to pay their living expenses at Fort Yukon during the winter, and that in the spring they would not even have enough left to pay passage home back to Dawson. To say nothing of having no enough food to subsist until they could get started again. To these poor fellows the offer of the mounted police was no better than the prospect at Dawson of being compelled to live on half rations until the supply boats could reach the diggings in the spring.

John W. Brauer, the United States mail carrier, who left Dawson Sept. 27, said: "There is only one salvation for the miners who are at Dawson City, and that is for them to make the awful water trip from Dawson to Fort Yukon, a distance of 300 miles. I will make my statement that when I left Dawson the men who were there had on an average four months' food supply. Some did not have a month's supply and some had four or five. The restaurant closed the night I left. It had been selling nothing but beefsteak, for which the hungry paid $1.50."

"When the people realized that the boats would be unable to get up the river they knew that starvation threatened them and the great stampede began."

"The first to leave went to Fort Yukon. I guess there were about ten in the party that left the first day. One boat that came up from Fort Yukon had several newspaper men aboard, among them Correspondent Sam Wall and a Mr. McGilvray. They brought the news that the Hamilton had unloaded all of her cargo and tried to get over the bar light and failed in her efforts, though she drew about two feet of water. This news increased the excitement and made the rush toward food centers all the greater. On Sept. 11 Bert Nelson of Seattle and myself left Circle City and started to pole up the river to Dawson City, a distance of 300 miles. At the same time we started from Circle City the miners had about taken their departure. It took us eleven days and three hours to make the journey, arriving at Dawson Sept. 26. Captain Hanson, with two Indians, who had left Fort Yukon, beat us into Dawson by about 12 hours. Hanson gathered the Dawson City miners together and made a short speech, in which he advised all who did not have provisions to last the winter to go to civilization or try and reach points in the Yukon river country where it was known food could be secured. That night was the roughest one in the history of Dawson City. The miners, as soon as they heard the news, made hasty preparation to get out, and nightfall saw the gold seekers and men who can today sell out for many thousands of dollars leaving by thousands for down the river or up the river points. The little steamer Kiukuk, which was to make the trips from Dawson to Pelly, where the Jack Dalton trail starts, was brought into play. She was beset by would be passengers, who offered as high as $250 that they might be aboard while she made her journey of 175 miles to Pelly. The Kiukuk left Dawson on the afternoon of Sept. 27, with 12 or 15 passengers."

"The next day we made up a party including Herbert Raymond of Seattle, Bert Nelson of Seattle, Harry Robertson of San Francisco and myself. We started up the river in a small river boat, the same one we had used in going from Circle City to Dawson. We left Dawson about 2 p. m. and were soon on our way up the river.

"While Jack Dalton left Dawson a couple of days later, the situation there then was the same as it was when we left, and I can tell you in a few words. The only things you could possibly buy were sugar, baking powder, spices and some dried fruit. No flour, bacon or anything of that kind could be purchased from any of the stores, simply because they did not have them. So long as the stores had any provisions prices remained the same. The stores treated the men all right under all circumstances, never advancing the prices, knowing a shortage was coming and that they had but to ask for high prices to receive them. I can relate, however, an instance where a private party sold a miner a sack of flour for $75 and bacon at $1 a pound."

H. A. Ferguson said: "The situation at Dawson was relieved by the exodus to Fort Yukon. I doubt if there will be any actual starvation, but there will be a shortage. The old timers have provisions enough to carry them through. The stores are practically closed out. All they would sell was five pounds of sugar to the man. Flour could not be bought at all. One or two sacks were quickly picked up at $50 per sack."

"Wages are still $15 a day, but they are sure to go down to $5 by next summer, and $5 a day there is no more than $10 a day out here."

Thomas Magee, Sr., the well known capitalist of San Francisco, in an interview said: "The excitement over the failure of the steamers to bring food up to Dawson continued when the Dalton party left. The police took charge for two days of the stores and warehouses of the Northwestern and Alaska Commercial company as a precaution only. Flour was selling at $2 a pound and no sales of less than 50 pounds were made. No plans have yet been formulated to prevent the starvation of those who are short of provisions. Those well supplied have not much sympathy with those who are short, because of the fact that the majority of these latter went in with little food."

It was reported at Dawson that the Dalton party had been discovered on Oct. 15 when shot the two men in Dawson who were caught stealing food. One was found dead and the other, fatally wounded, died at the Catholic hospital. It is believed that a secret organization exists for the purpose of shooting down those who are short of provisions. The organization of hunting parties for the purpose to hunt those who are short of provisions will be carried out."

Perished En Route to Dawson. VICTORIA, B. C., Nov. 29.—The collector of customs at Tachah Lake, in a letter, says five men have been lost in the lake and others on the route to Dawson within the last few weeks. With the exception of Frank Anthony he does not know the names of the victims. A number of boats have been wrecked in the rapids.

Soldiers For Fort Townsend. PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., Nov. 29.—A telegram received here from Washington states that General Miles has ordered to the secretary of war a letter in which he recommends that Fort Townsend be occupied by troops immediately.

Bound For the Yukon. PREPARED, N. S., Nov. 29.—The schooner Abbie M. Deering of Lynn, Mass., left yesterday, after having been refitted for the Yukon, via Cape Horn.

FIRE IN PHILADELPHIA. Good of Apt Bldg. Destroyed, Causing a Loss of $75,000.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 29.—The military and furnishing stores of Ant Bldg. 39 and 41 North Eighth street, were damaged by fire yesterday to the extent of about $75,000, on which the firm carried $50,000 insurance. The building, which fronts on Filbert street as well as Eighth and which is owned by the estate of George S. Lang, was damaged to the extent of $10,000, covered by insurance.

The origin of the fire is unknown. Both members of the firm and a window dresser were in the building until about 12:30 o'clock arranging the stock for the Christmas holidays. Shortly after they left the fire was discovered. The building is in the heart of the shopping district, and the entire fire department was called. After two hours' hard work they extinguished the flames without any serious damage to other property.

George Gest, a fireman, was badly burned about the face during the fire, and Bethel Partridge, a ladderman, suffered a broken leg.

Haiti Incident to Be Investigated. BERLIN, Nov. 29.—The state department at Washington has requested United States Ambassador White to ascertain exactly the intentions of Germany with respect to the claims of Herr Lueders, whose recent imprisonment in Haiti has caused friction between the German and Haitian governments. Mr. White has also been instructed, if any schemes of annexation exist or if there is an intention to make an excessive demonstration with a view of unduly punishing Haiti, to intimate to the German government that the United States could not tolerate either of the courses before mentioned, though in principle having no objection to Germany obtaining satisfaction.

May Succeed Dr. McVicker. PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 29.—Rev. Dr. John Brooks of Massachusetts, a brother of the late Bishop Phillips Brooks, preached at Holy Trinity Episcopal church yesterday. This is looked upon as significant in view of the approaching departure of Rev. Dr. McVicker, present rector of Holy Trinity, for Rhode Island as coadjutor to the bishop of that diocese.

Worrier Enthusiastically Received. PALMA, Island of Mallorca, Nov. 29.—Lieutenant General Weyler, on the Montserrat, arrived here yesterday and was accorded an enthusiastic reception.

THE FALL OF BADENI

Emperor Francis Joseph Dissolves the Austrian Cabinet.

RESULT OF REICHSRATH DISORDERS.

The Change in Ministry Stops the Rioting in Vienna—Demonstration in Favor of Herr Wolff Causes His Discharge From Custody.

VIENNA, Nov. 29.—The members of the Austrian ministry have tendered their resignations to Emperor Francis Joseph, who accepted them and intrusted Baron Gautsch, who holds the portfolio of public instruction in the retiring ministry, with the task of forming a new cabinet.

Emperor Francis Joseph addressed an autograph letter to Count Badeni, declining the adjournment of the reichsrath until further orders.

Before the assembling of the reichsrath dense masses of people for the most part workmen, ranged the Ring, the main thoroughfare from the outer gate of the holiness. A charge by the mounted police with drawn swords failing to disperse them, a body of hussars cleared the streets at sabers' point, many persons being wounded. The ambulance society immediately sent two vans to attend the injured.

At least 10,000 people gathered about the same time in front of the town hall and the Provincial criminal court to demonstrate in favor of Herr Wolff, who was to be arraigned there on a charge of public violence committed Saturday when being removed from the unterhaus by the police, acting under the orders of President von Abrahamovics. The police, with drawn swords, dispersed them, the man's skull being fractured and two others being severely injured. A third ambulance was sent to that point.

Simultaneous meetings of workmen were held in various quarters of the city but the police dissolved these, making 12 arrests. Thousands assembled in the Rathaus park, where they indulged in noisy protests against the government, the passengers in the street cars and omnibuses who went by joining in cries of "Down with Badeni!"

Suddenly a change came over the scene. The report spread like wildfire that Count Badeni had resigned. The demonstrations ceased almost instantly when the news was confirmed by the police authorities and their subordinates, who announced to the people at various points that they were instructed to inform them of the cabinet's resignation.

Dr. Lugger, the burgomaster of Vienna, driving through the crowds, announced the resignation from his carriage, repeating it a little later from the windows of the town hall, with the addition that Herr Gautsch had been appointed to form a cabinet. He appealed to the people to return quietly to their homes. His announcement was greeted with thunders of applause, and an extra edition of the Vienna Zeitung, with an official statement of the resignation, still further reassured the populace.

A band of 3,000 people tried to organize a demonstration in front of the foreign office building, but this was prevented by closing the approaches to the palace. The judge of the Provincial criminal court discharged Herr Wolff from custody.

There were demonstrations also at Graz, Prague and Arch. in Bohemia, but they were not of a serious character.

An order has been issued to the rector of the University of Vienna declaring the university closed for two days and warning the students that in the event of further excesses the university will remain closed indefinitely. They are especially cautioned to abstain from conflicts with the police, who on their part, the order announces, will abstain from again trespassing upon the university premises.

When Herr Wolff was discharged he was escorted to his residence by a large and enthusiastic crowd.

During the collision between the police and the students in front of the university Saturday evening the students were driven into the buildings. The police attempted to force their way in after them, but were repulsed by the students, who from the first floor windows pelted the police with spittoons, other missiles and showers of ashes. During the conflict several were injured and about 60 arrested.

It is asserted that the emperor at first declined to accept the resignation of the cabinet, but Count Badeni replied: "Your majesty, I cannot take the responsibility. Bloodshed will ensue if I remain in office." Thereupon the emperor reluctantly accepted the resignation.

Baron Gautsch de Pakenburg, upon whom has been thrown the difficult task of constructing a cabinet capable of conducting public business in the presence of the various conflicting forces at work in the unterhaus, is of German nationality. He is a moderate and conciliatory politician, popular with all parties in Austria as well as among the Hungarians. His appointment is sure to make a good impression.

Emperor Francis Joseph returned to Vienna Saturday night from visiting his daughter at Wallsee. He was informed that Vienna was on the brink of revolution. The troops stood in readiness all that night, the palace being strongly guarded by a special force of police and soldiery.

THE VIEWS OF BRADY

Governor Tells What Legislation Is Needed For Alaska.

WANTS A COMMISSION APPOINTED.

A Representative Body to Thoroughly Consider Laws for the Government of the Northern Territory—Smuggling Evil Must Be Checked.

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 29.—In an interview, Governor John G. Brady of Alaska says:

"The business men and officials of Alaska are concerned affecting some change or amplification of the laws as they are at present in force."

"They will combine to submit to congress a proposition to authorize the appointment of a committee which will consider the needs of Alaska on the ground. My idea is that the committee should consist of a senator, a representative and three bona fide residents of Alaska. If we are able to get a commission, something may be accomplished for the practical good of Alaska. Otherwise time devoted to Alaska will be frittered away in the consideration of individual bills of no benefit to the country as a whole. Many think Alaska should have a territorial form of government. The objections to this are manifold, chief among them being the sparse population of the country. A territory means taxation, and the people are not there to be taxed. It would be of little avail to submit to congress resolutions for a change in the code now in existence. These things must be investigated by a committee which can ascertain the needs of the people by personal observation. We want an extension of the land laws, the status of the natives declared, the regulation of the fish industry, the right of appeal and laws for the preservation of game.

GOVERNOR BRADY.

"The smuggling evils must also be dealt with by the committee. Last year 21,000 gallons of Canadian whisky were smuggled into Alaska."

Governor Brady thinks that Alaska will be as great an agricultural and farming country some day as a mining one.

Governor Brady's trip to this city is on private business. He will not go on to Washington to attend the coming session of congress, as has been reported.

Murderer Attempts Suicide.

LIBERTY, Mo., Nov. 29.—In his cell in the county jail yesterday afternoon William Carr, under sentence to be hanged next month for drowning his 3-year-old child in the Missouri river, tried to commit suicide by swallowing a quantity of pounded glass. The county physician thinks he will recover because of his giant strength. It appears that Carr had stolen a bottle of medicine from a fellow prisoner, spilled the contents on the floor and pounded the bottle into small particles. These he drank in a glass of water. When Deputy Sheriff Cave and Dr. Sevier tried to administer an emetic, Carr fought like a fiend, threatening to brain Cave with a chair, and was only conquered by being choked until he was black in the face. When finally overpowered Carr begged the jail officers to choke him to death. He will be placed in chains.

Lost His Life in the Flames.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 29.—At an early hour yesterday morning the large flouring mill of Dr. Milton Hammond, near Bruceville, Frederick county, was totally destroyed by fire, and the superintendent, George Biehl, lost his life in the flames. Biehl was asleep in the building and awoke only to find all means of escape cut off. The fire is supposed to have originated among the machinery in the upper part of the mill. The loss is estimated at $5,000; fully covered by insurance.

Alleged Murderer Escapes.

WHITEHALL, N. Y., Nov. 29.—Frank Lajoy, who killed William Jackson, deputy sheriff, near Paradox lake, on Sept. 17 and who was afterward indicted for murder in the first degree, has escaped from the county jail at Elizabethtown. Harry Harris, indicted for burglary and grand larceny, also escaped. Lajoy was one of the three brothers whom Jackson was attempting to arrest for violation of the game laws when he lost his life.

Ocean Race of Freighters.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 29.—The British ship Montgomeryshire and the bark Harbottle started yesterday on an ocean race. They are bound for Great Britain and are laden with grain and merchandise, before starting their captain made a wager dependent on the result of their long voyage, and each was confident of making transoceanic records.

THE DREYFUS CASE AGAIN.

Sensation Caused in Paris by Publication of Esterhazy's Letters.

PARIS, Nov. 29.—The Figaro has caused a sensation in connection with the Dreyfus affair by publishing several letters purporting to be written by Count Ferdinand Walsin Esterhazy, who has been accused by M. Scheurer Kestner, one of the vice presidents of the senate, of being the author of the unsigned letter which led to the condemnation of Dreyfus.

In one of them, after expressing his intention to enter the Turkish service, Count Esterhazy is represented as saying: "I shall not leave without having played a trick of my own on those amiable Frenchmen."

Other passages illustrating the character of the letters follow:

"Our cowardly and ignorant great chiefs will go once more to people German prisons."

"I should be perfectly happy if I were told I was to be killed tomorrow as a captain of uhlans sabering Frenchmen."

"I am capable of great things or crimes, if that could avenge me. I would not harm a little dog, but I would have a hundred thousand Frenchmen killed with pleasure."

Count Esterhazy proceeds to say that "Frenchmen are not worthy of the cartridges intended to kill them," and he conjures up a "dream of festivity" in the shape of the pillage of Paris by 100,000 drunken soldiers.

Interviewed by reporters as to the publications in the Figaro of letters purporting to be of his authorship, Count Esterhazy displayed great indignation and declared that they were forged by the friends of Dreyfus, who, he said, had taken words and sentences from his letters and placed them together by a process with which he was acquainted. He said also that he had been warned some days back that such a publication would be made.

Your doubts the authenticity of the letters. Shortly after Figaro appeared Count Esterhazy visited General Pellieux, who was appointed by General Saussier, the military governor of Paris, to conduct the investigation of the charges which have been brought against him, and protested against what he alleges is a "fresh calumny."

A semi-official note says that General Pellieux's investigation was almost finished, but that he will now examine into the authenticity of these letters; that he will act with absolute impartiality and see to it that satisfaction is given to the honor of the army, to justice and truth.

ANOTHER CHICAGO TRAGEDY.

Rivals the Luetgert Case in Revolting Detail and Public Interest.

CHICAGO, Nov. 29.—The mystery surrounding the disappearance of Mrs. Pauline Merry from her home at 50 Hope street was solved last night by the confession of Thomas Hickey, who was arrested on suspicion. Hickey told a revolting story of how Christopher Merry choked and beat his wife a week ago last Friday. Then, finding it impossible to restore his wife to consciousness, Hickey says that Merry decided to put her "out of her misery" by beating out her brains with a poker.

The horrible story told by Hickey was extorted from him after hours of questioning in the seatbox. Late yesterday afternoon he led a party of police to an uninhabited portion of the city near Eighty-seventh street and Western avenue, where Mrs. Merry's body was found buried beneath a few inches of loose dirt by the roadside. The disappearance of Mrs. Merry excited as much interest as that of Mrs. Luetgert.

A week ago the police learned that she had been made away with by her husband at his cottage in Hope street. Merry was a peddler. When the police began their investigation a 3-year-old son of Merry's told them that his father had killed his mother and had lowered her body through a trapdoor into the cellar.

Following this clue it was found that Merry had driven away from his place Saturday morning with a covered wagon, but no further trace of him has been discovered. James Hickey confessed that he and James Smith had been present when Merry beat and choked his wife to death. The three men sat up Friday night and tried to restore Mrs. Merry. On Saturday Merry, he said, decided to kill his wife, which he did with a poker. The body was carried away, and Merry, although still in the city, has successfully eluded the police.

Storm's Fury at Holyhead.

LONDON, Nov. 29.—A heavy north-west gale, with terrific hail squalls, has done much damage at Holyhead and near Liverpool. Many yachts and small craft have been sunk at their moorings and some buildings have been injured. At Holyhead tugs and a lifeboat rescued with great difficulty the crew of the Nova Scotian bark Alert, which was in danger of running on the rocks. The wreck of Lord Nelson's old flagship, the Foudroyant, supposed to be firmly imbedded off Blackpool, has been dashed to pieces. The gale has been felt generally along the English coast, but only a few casualties are reported from the English channel.

Almost a Lynching in Jersey.

CAMDEN, N. J., Nov. 29.—John Brumpp, who claims to live in Philadelphia, narrowly escaped lynching yesterday at the hands of an angry crowd because of an attempted assault on a 12-year-old mulatto girl named Florence Pierce. The girl, who lives in the lower part of Camden, was on her way to Sunday school. Her screams frightened him away, and he took refuge in a house close by. He was captured by some citizens, a crowd gathered, and preparations were being made to hang him to an electric light pole, when the police arrived and took him into custody.

PRINCESS POISONED.

Lily Dolgorouky Slain In Salvador For Her Diamonds.

SAID TO BE OF RUSSIAN ROYALTY.

Her Secretary and a Brazilian Count Reported to Have Been the Murderers. The Former Is In Jail; the Latter Escaped.

CITY OF GUATEMALA, Nov. 29.—A report which seems well authenticated comes from Salvador that Princess Dolgorouky, who claimed to be the monogamous widow of Czar Alexander II, was poisoned in Salvador by her secretary and an adventurer named Count de Casiro Sormenho.

She died suddenly, and her death was given out as from yellow fever, but the body was disinterred by the authorities, whose suspicions had been aroused, and an autopsy revealed that she had been poisoned.

The News Via Omaha.

OMAHA, Nov. 29.—A letter has just been received from an attaché of the United States legation at the city of San Salvador by James B. Haynes of Omaha which gives details of the poisoning of the Princess Dolgorouky.

The alleged princess came to this country from Paris under contract to play the violin at the exposition and left here about two months ago. She was heavily bejeweled and it is thought her diamonds and the money she carried were the objects sought by the criminals. The count said he was a Portuguese grandee from Brazil, but he was apparently of doubtful antecedents.

He arrived in this city about a year ago and was in poor circumstances. He advertised as a professor of fencing and languages and announced that he was a graduate of a French institute of high standing. He soon afterward became a reporter on a local newspaper and owing to some criticism fought a duel with Mr. Milla, son of the historian of Central America. Milla was wounded, having received a severe sword thrust in the hand, but he soon recovered.

At the time of the breaking out of the revolt against President Barrios, the count, who had wormed his way into the confidence of President Barrios, was chief of police in Quetzaltenango, but secured the vengeance of the revolutionists by his hasty flight from the city.

The dull times prevailing here rendered the country undesirable for an adventurer of his class, and he went to Salvador, where, according to the graphic advices, he was suspected of complicity in the poisoning of the princess.

The jewels and other valuables of the dead woman are said to have been found in the possession of the secretary and the count as they were hastening their preparations to leave the country. De Castro, however, according to a telegram just received, escaped and is thought to be on his way to South America. It is supposed the secretary is still in duress.

Young Mrs. Clay V. Ry II.

WHITEHALL, Ky., Nov. 29.—Word has just been received here that General Clay's young wife, Dora, who was thrown by John Biggerstaff's big mare several weeks ago and was supposed to have been slightly injured, is dangerously ill as the result of her fall. Peritonitis has set in, and her physician considers her case serious. Another young man has been mentioned as an ardent admirer of young Mrs. Clay. His name is Pan Tudor, and he lives near General Clay. He was seen frequently with Dora while the General was away being treated by a Cincinnati specialist. They met at William Richardson's, near General Clay's, and William's wife drew a pistol on Tudor and threatened to shoot him if he did not go away and leave Dora alone. He never went back to William's, but has been to see Dora since she went to her brother Clell's at Valley View. General Clay heard of her long conversation with Tudor and reprimanded her for allowing him to talk to her. Tudor's friends fear General Clay, and Tudor is keeping out of his way.

Train Robbers Apprehended.

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Nov. 29. District Attorney Finical of this city has received a telegram from Dan Graham, the constable of Esisbee, A. T., saying that he had apprehended three train robbers who held up the Santa Fe Pacific passenger train at Granby three weeks ago. The prisoners are Jesse Williams, an Anderson and an unknown man. The crime was committed in Val Verde county, in this judicial district, and District Attorney Finical is now preparing the papers to have the robbers extradited from Arizona to this territory. While the exact amount of the booty secured by these robbers is not known it has been estimated at between $25,000 and $100,000. Train robbery is a capital offense in this territory, so that if the men now arrested be proven guilty they will have to answer with their lives.

Camden Ministers Resign.

CAMDEN, N. J., Nov. 29.—Rev. William Dayton Roberts, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of this city, last night announced to his congregation his acceptance of a call extended him by the First Presbyterian church of Williamsport, Pa. He will leave for his new field on Jan. 1. Rev. M. M. Finch, who for eight years has been pastor of the Tabernacle Baptist church, has also decided to accept a call to the Port Monmouth Baptist church at Port Monmouth, N. J. He will assume his new charge on Dec. 12.

SPECIAL TERM CASES.

Interesting Question as to Prerogative of Insurance—appointed a Referee in a Middletown Divorce Case.

In Judge Hines' special term at Newburgh, Saturday, C. E. Cudd-back moved to vacate an attachment against a mortgage for $1,000 belonging to James T. Cudd-back, who had been an agent for the sale of flour for S. M. Ball, of Newburgh, who on aimed a judgment against him, and there being no other property owned on the mortgage, which was part of the proceeds of an insurance of $2,000 on the life of Cudd-back when the Royal Templars of Tempérance. Mr. Cudd-back claimed that the mortgage was void under the law governing fraternal insurance. Mr. Ball's attorney claimed that the Royal Templars not having been incorporated since this law was passed its bonds were void and not take advantage of the law's provisions. Bonds were submitted.

Daniel F. Cudd-back was appointed referee to take testimony and report in the divorce suit of Lizzie Finch vs. Grover Finch, of this city.

Success of Mr. Galt's "Patent" Lecture Assured.

The success of the Galt lecture, "Patent," at the Casino, Wednesday evening, Dec. 28th, is now assured. More than $100 worth of tickets have been bought and paid for. The only question now is, how great a success can we make it? With ten days more to work we expect to assure the evanescence of a crowded house.

New Industry for Orange.

Horace Sitter, who lives near Richfield Springs, and who is a native of Springfield, is going into the business of skunk raising. He will enclose three quarters of an acre of suitable land with a wire fence. This will be sunk into the earth twice, to prevent the animals burrowing out. There is money in both pelts and oil.

$100 Reward, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one divided disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is catarrh. Catarrh of the prostate is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature to do its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. See, for list of testimonials.

"COMING OF THE KING."

Dudley Buck's cantata, "The Coming of the King," which is to be given at Grace Church, Dec. 7th.

The cantata, "The Coming of the King," which is to be given at Grace Church, on the evening of December 7th, is one of the most interesting of modern sacred compositions. The various incidents connected with the nativity of Christ form the subject of the work, and the greatest variety of musical effect has been attained. One of the most pleasing features is the male chorus, representing the Magi of the East in their march over the desert, searching for the new born king. The various solo parts will be taken by Mrs. Harvey Wickham, Mrs. C. H. Sweez, Miss Julia Wickham, Messrs. H. A. Fisher, Z. K. Greene, David Ellenberger and E. Mills. There will be no charge for admission, but an offering will be taken up.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

—Miss Annie House is visiting friends and relatives in this place.

—About Storm, owner of the mine house, brought suit against all of the tenants and the case was heard before Judge Bent on last Friday. Mr. Storm was the plaintiff and all of the tenants will be compelled to vacate if their rents are not forthcoming.

—Garret Brown, Jr., of Stockholm, was visiting his sister, Mrs. George Cooper, last week.

—One night recently some malicious persons found considerable amusement in stoking the house occupied by Erastus DeGraaf and wife, an aged couple living near Pike's crossing. Stones were fired at the house and stones were thrown through the windows, one striking Mrs. DeGraaf, injuring her quite badly. Any person or persons who would commit an act of that kind should be known and dealt with severely as they are a menace to public safety.

A GOOD PRACTICE.

If you Want a Good Appetite and Perfect Digestion.

"After each meal dissolve one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets in the mouth and, mixing with the food, they constitute a perfect digestive, absolutely safe for the most sensitive stomach.

They digest the food before it has time to ferment, thus preventing the formation of gas and keeping the blood pure and free from the poisonous products of fermentation, half-digested food.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets make the complexion clear by keeping the blood pure.

They increase fleshy digestion of flesh-forming foods.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the only remedy designed especially for the cure of stomach trouble and nothing else.

One disease, one remedy, the successful physician of today is the specialist, the successful medicine is the medicine prepared especially for one disease.

A whole package taken at one time would not hurt you, but would simply be a waste of good material.

Over six thousand men and women in the State of Michigan alone have been cured of indigestion and dyspepsia by the use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Sold by all druggists at 50 cents for full size package.

Send for free book on stomach diseases to Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

One Minute Cough Cure cures quickly. That's what you want! W. D. Olney.

THE TALK OF THE CITY.

It's of Interest to Our Readers Because of Its Reference to Middletown People.

It's astonishing how good news will spread. From every ward and street we hear of our people talking about the workings of the little conqueror. Merit and honorable methods receive their just reward. So many cases are cropping up that it is next to impossible to investigate them all, but we have taken a few in hand and give them in publicity for the benefit of our readers. Our representative obtained the following statement of facts in a personal interview. They are true in every particular and no stronger evidence can be obtained than home endorsement.

T. P. Cronin, of No. 201 West Main Street, furnishes an example of this. He says: "Some four years ago I had the grip and when I recovered from its attack I found it had left my back in a very bad condition. It soon developed into a severe kidney secretion, which had thick, cloudy appearance, were very dark in color, precipitated a heavy deposit and were so frequent that I had to get up quite often during the night. If I did any extra hard work or caught cold the pain was always more severe and the urinary trouble more annoying. I took numberless remedies for my complaint, but failed to find anything to cure me until I obtained a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at J. E. Mills' drug store. They acted in my case about the same as they did in all others whose published statements I had been reading about. I endorse all that is claimed for Doan's Kidney Pills."

Doan's Kidney Pills are sold for 50 cents per box, or six boxes for $2.50. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for United States. Sent by mail on receipt of price. For sale by all dealers.

Remember the name Doan's, and take no substitute.

CHILIANS BUILDING RAILWAYS.

Government Borrowing Money from Europeans for This Purpose.

The Chileans, "the Yankees of South America," are moving in the matter of railways, and the Chilean government is considering an offer from a German syndicate for $25,000,000 at 4 1/2 per cent, to be expended in building lines, reports the Philadelphia Ledger.

The offer is a stroke of enterprise not merely as an investment, but because of the foothold it will give Germany in South American industries. In a mountainous country like Chile $25,000,000 will not build many miles of road, especially since the first effort will probably be to scale the Andes and to establish communication with the Atlantic states, but it will build so much that more must be had to make the first available.

In the end, it is most probable the sum will amount to $100,000,000 or more, besides which many other millions will have to be invested in equipment, and Germany will be in a favorable position to furnish all that is required. If properly conducted the movement will be profitable to both Germany and Chile, and though the United States may regret to see such an alliance between a South American state and a foreign nation the United States will have nothing to say in contravention of it. The Monroe doctrine does not cover such a case, and our attitude toward the sister republics of late years has not been such as to encourage intimate trade relations with them.

VEGETARIAN HOSPITAL.

Sick People Being Cured on a Non-Meat Diet in England.

Vegetarianism has taken a stand in England which entitles it to respect from people who are not entire believers in the doctrine, reports the New York Times. The restaurants of the vegetarians are clean and they provide a menu of reasonable variety. One of the latest steps in the line of the work has been the founding of a vegetarian hospital, which a writer in the London Daily Chronicle describes. It was started in 1853, though little was said about it at the time, as the founders did not wish to advertise it until they were sure of its becoming successful. It was to be for non-vegetarians, it being understood that vegetarians are never ill. Consequently there was some prejudice to overcome. It was also thought that there might be difficulty in putting an invalid accustomed to eating meat suddenly upon a vegetable diet. But no trouble was found, patients did as well as could be desired, and the result has been altogether very satisfactory. The hospital authorities believe that the general increase of cancer is due to excess in meat eating. Pine baths and massage treatment, with plenty of fresh air, are included in the hospital regimen.

Royal Diamonds.

The value of the jewels in the British crown is about $1,500,000, or a little over one-fifth of the cost of the crown of little Portugal, which is estimated at $8,500,000. The sultan of Johore, however, on state occasions glitters in diamonds, the value of these in his crown and worn upon his person being not less than $12,000,000.

Miss Alice Hughes, Norfolk, Va., was frightfully burned on the face and neck. Pain was instantly relieved by DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, which healed the injury without leaving a scar. It is the famous pile remedy. W. D. Olney.

Mrs. M. B. Ford, Ruddell's, Ill., suffered for eight years from dyspepsia and chronic constipation and was finally cured by using DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills for all stomach and liver troubles. W. D. Olney.

MONDAY, NOV. 29, 1897.

According to the report of the Surgeon-General there were less than 5,000 cases of yellow fever during the recent outbreak in the Southwest, and of these less than 500 proved fatal. The panic caused by the disease and the strict quarantine enforced paralyzed business and caused a money loss of many millions. But had it not been for the panic and the strictness of the quarantine the probability is that the loss of life would have been many times greater than it was.

The ten States of New York, Massachusetts, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Ohio, Kentucky, Iowa, Virginia and Nebraska, which last year gave Republican majorities of 89,744, cut down the Republican majority this year to 151,014, and several of the states which gave Republican majorities last year went heavily Democratic this year. Democratic success in this fall's election was a most wonderful recovery from a disastrous and overwhelming defeat. It was even more remarkable than the Republican rally from the defeat of 1892, for the panic of '93 and the wrangle over the repeal of the Sherman silver purchase act had prepared the way for Democratic disaster in the elections of '93 and '94.

The man who asks the people of the Atlanta, Ga., district to nominate him for Congress because he is in favor of lynching seems to have made a hit, for several prominent citizens have come forward to say that they agree with him and that it is time this manly punishment about lynching is ended. They boldly avow that it is the only punishment that fits the crime of assassination of white women by negro brutes, and say that it will be resorted to in spite of sentimental protests just as long as crimes against white women are committed. From a no-the-point-of-view such a declaration seems like setting all law at defiance, but when put to the test northern communities are not very different from those in the South. In order to prove this it is only necessary to call two incidents in Georgia county's history—the lynching of Rob Lewis in Port Jervis, and of the negro in the Court House Square in Newburgh in the sixties.

The Sun, which now poses as the mentor of the Republican party, tells Mr. Dingley that his tariff is a deficiency maker and that a revision of the schedules must be made at this session of Congress to the end that more revenue may be collected or the Treasury Department will be forced to issue bonds to provide for the current expenses of the government. A revision of the schedules to increase their revenue-raising capacity will not be easy, for many duties were fixed at prohibitory figures in accordance with the demands of manufacturers who clamored for the highest possible protection, and who will not quietly submit to a lowering of duties to the point where importations are possible and customs revenue collection is difficult. The other alternative is the imposition of higher internal revenue taxes. The most natural thing to do in revenue-raising in this direction would be to increase the tax on beer, but such a tax would arouse the brewing interest against the Republican party, and it is not likely, therefore, to be seriously thought of. There is one other way to raise revenue fit expenditure, and that is to cut down expenses, and this may be attempted, but it is not in the hands of legislators to succeed in the role of economists. The task that confronts Mr. Dingley and his associates is not an easy one, and before the session is over there is likely to plow deep furrows in their brows.

THORN'S DEFENSE BEGUN.

Mr. Howe's Opening Address—Mrs. Nack Bitterly Arraigned as the Real Murderer—Thorn on the Stand—Mrs. Nack Killed Goldensuppe.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—A perfect throng of women gathered outside the Queens county court house, this morning waiting for the doors to open to the Thorn trial. When Sheriff Doherty told them that the evidence in the defense would present today was not of a character that they would care to hear, all but three went away.

Howe and Moss, the prisoner's lawyers, greeted Thorn enthusiastically. Before Mr. Howe began his opening address for the defense, Barber Gotha was recalled. Mr. Howe twice asked him if he was ever an inmate of the Fort Hamilton Reformatory and received an emphatic "no" both times.

"May it please your honor and gentlemen of the jury," said Mr. Howe, "Martin Thorn is innocent of the murder of Goldensuppe." He then launched into a terrible arraignment of Mrs. Nack, declaring that she was the murderer, who hired the Woodside cottage for the purpose of turning it into a slaughter house for the murder of William Goldensuppe. During his counsels address, Thorn for the first time since the trial began to show signs of emotion.

After two former employers of Thorn had testified that Thorn was a steady workman, the prisoner took the stand.

He testified that his real name is Porzwick, and came to this country seventeen years ago; first met Mrs. Nack, a year and a half ago, at her home; Goldensuppe was there. Mrs. Nack made love to me and I returned it. I loved her until she took the stand against me at the first trial. Thorn then told of his quarrel with Goldensuppe and the latter's attack on him and said she rented the Woodside Cottage. "I went there a little before noon, Friday, June 25th. Mrs. Nack met me at the door saying 'Goldensuppe is up stairs.' I asked her what he was doing there. She replied, 'He's dead; I've shot him.' She then requested me to help dispose of the body.

Continuing he said she cut up the body and gave the ghastly details of the work. After encasing the head in plaster of Paris he dropped it in the river from a twenty-second street ferryboat. They burned the clothes, which Mrs. Nack carried in the stove in her house. The witness then told of the disposition of the other parts of the body.

He explained his conversation with Gotha by saying that he told him how Mrs. Nack killed Goldensuppe. Thorn looked squarely at the jury while testifying and spoke clearly though in a low voice.

INCENDIARY FIRE AT OTISVILLE.

The Unoccupied House of John Callahan, of this City, Burned.

From our Otisville correspondent.
Fire, probably of incendiary origin, destroyed the dwelling house of John Callahan, Saturday evening. Mr. Callahan is gate tender at Knox's crossing in Middletown and he and his family now reside in that city and their house here was unoccupied.

Unoccupied dwellings are unsafe in that locality as this is the second one to be burned.

An Erie Brakeman Injured.

Bert Brown, Jr., of Port Jervis, an Erie brakeman, was climbing up the side of a box car as his train was backing into a switch at Lackawanna, Saturday morning, when he was caught by the roof of a car standing on the siding and his left hip broken and the pelvic bone fractured. The injury is a very serious one.

An Ice Trust in Port Jervis.

Rudolf and Cole and Vail & Winters, who have been in the ice business in Port Jervis, have arranged to consolidate their interests and incorporate a company to be known as the Port Jervis Ice Co. The new company has bought the ice business of Charles Wehinger.

IN THE RAILROAD WORLD.

—The Erie employs 350 men in its Port Jervis shops.

—The Erie is doing a very heavy car business nowadays and nearly every day a special train is made up to handle the great quantity of stock going eastward.

HYMENEAL.

Lehn-Zieres.

The wedding of Jacob C. Lehn, the well known barber at Tapp & Hineman's Ray-ell House shop, and Miss Anna M. Zieres, also of this city, occurred this afternoon, at St. Mary's rectory, Port Jervis, Rev. Father Sully officiating. The best man was Jacob Baner, Jr., and Miss Mary Ellen Lehn was bridesmaid. The maids of honor were the Misses Frances and Victoria Lehn. The ladies of the bridal party wore white silk and carried white roses.

A reception followed the ceremony at the home of the groom's parents, No. 10 Spruce street. Music was furnished for the occasion by the Peerless Mandolin Club, of which Mr. Lehn was formerly a member. The couple will return here tomorrow, the wedding trip being postponed owing to Mr. Lehn's illness.

The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Lehn, of Port Jervis, and the bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Zieres, of Little Basket Pond, Sullivan county.

Mr. and Mrs. Lehn will reside in apartments in the Dill block, on South street.

-HE HEARD THE BURGLARS.
But Mr. Stewart did not investigate and they went away.

W. H. Stewart, the proprietor of the Ready Pay Grocery, was sitting in the dark by the stove in the Ready Pay store, Friday night, about 11:30,
when he heard some one at the back door.
He paid no attention to the noise, even after several minutes had been lighted.
He saw several persons standing outside of the door, but that they could be robbers never entered his head.

They soon went away, doubtless to Lod's grocery, a few doors away, where entrance was effected.

KICKERS AND MACHINE MEN THE GUESTS OF BIG BOSS ODELL.

All Feel Better After the Feast But Those Who're Not Invited Not Still Sore.

-The Conference at the Mayor's Office
-Grievances of the Anti-Machine Men
-The Post Office Matter Not Reached
-Kickers to Be Represented on the City Committee and Are Not to Kettle
District and County Candidates.

The dinner which Boss Odell set before the pictures from this city, Saturday afternoon, at the Palace in Newburgh, was a "J. Jones Hickey." It fitted every wrinkle and crease in the anatomy of the "boys" from this city, and it did just what "Ben" wanted. Not a few of those who ate Ben's lobster and Newburgh, and turned down their larger glasses so the waiters would know that on yeh chum-pays was want-d, came back here where no boss was ever known to give a dinner with vest buttons unbuttoned and with hats on the back of heads and saying:

"I didn't know what a fine felly 'Ben'
was. I never met him before."

But to-day they are asking themselves
"what did we get?"

The machine men, on the other hand look like rabbit hunters with ferns in their pockets. They know that "Ben" was pledged assurance that he was all right for a third term, and that the kicking Republicans agreed that they wouldn't let their city fight extend to the county or Assembly district again.

But those who were not thought sufficiently strong as kickers, or not sufficiently tail as bosses and who weren't asked to the "harmony feast" will want to know who was there, and who was not there.

Those present were: J. P. Bull, B. S.
Dayton, A. B. Wilbur, W. B. Rogers, J. H.
McElroy, J. F. Tutill, H. W. Wiggins,
W. F. Rogers, J. W. Phillips, J. W. Stunson, E. R. Russell, John S. Cooper, C. E.
Maunder, C. M. Hurd, George E. Thorpe,
C. T. Hayes, W. S. Cook, Geo. A. Baker,
Wm. Van Schaick, C. Z. Taylor, D. Flon,
R. G. Shiner, J. D. Silvers, Ed. D. Tompkins, Ira Dorrance, J. M. Johnson, J. E.
Brazier, A. V. N. Powelson, Maj. E. L.
Sproat, Hon. L. F. Goodsell, chairman of the Republican County Committee.

Among those who were not there were the astute politicians, Charles L. Moad, James B. Carson, Moses Crist, Charles J.
Boyd, W. K. Stanbury and a few others who had sense enough not to go on record. The District Attorney and the Mayor of Middletown were present and as "muzz" as chains. Mayor Sproat purposely went late lest his pronounced opinion on machine methods find too much expression before the grand dinner.

"Ben" presided at the preliminary conference in the office of his father, the Mayor. He told the Middletowners that he had taken no notice of the fight in this city, though the chairman of the County Committee, Louis F. Goodsell, who was present, had done so. He thought the city should settle its own fight, but when the fight was taken outside and county candidates and even an Assemblyman were discussed he put and mortified and he looked angry.
He made him "see," he said, on Middletown Republicans. They are alien upon several of those present to whom they were friendly. One weak-kneed but old-fashioned anti-machine man said to an Anti-machine reporter:

"Then 'Dan' Flon, John W. Sauson, W. B. Rogers, Edward E. Tompkins and Henry W. Wiggins spoke for the machine men and J. Frank Bull, E. G. Cooper, J.
F. Tutill, J. H. Almy, E. R. Russell and B. S. Dayton spoke for the antimachine."

And then he stopped. But others were more talkative.

Mr. Rogers, who is said to have been the big gun who made up Ben's invitation list, declined to be interviewed, but badly took on the look of the "wise guy," and said that it was agreed that the machine should have the post office and the anti-machine the city organization.

The truth of the matter is that the post office matter was not brought up at all, and "Dan" told the listeners that he didn't know whether he was a machine man or anti-machine man. He knew there was something wrong in Middletown's politics and W. B. Rogers told the anti-machine by saying as much in his remarks. Mr. Rogers admitted that a few men were trying to dictate to the majority.

Several of the speakers were not backward in referring to the Middletown Caucus as the party where a few men sit and make up the ticket and then assess the candidates and tell the voters that these candidates must be elected.

E. R. Russell and Daniel Finn had a straight-on-the-shoulder bout on an alleged meeting of the City Committee at which candidates were chosen, while Ward Committeemen J. J. Wood and A.
F. Tutill who are not machine men were left out when notices of the meeting were given out. Mr. Finn replied that such a meeting had never been held.

In regard to the fight at the First Ward caucus Mr. Sauson stated that many Democrats were voted there and did not know it. He hoped that the machine could get together.

It was a deal of talking, not in harsh language, but many pointed words were sent across the Mayor's office.

No agreement had really been reached when dinner was announced, but "it was sort of understood" that the Republican City Committee would be increased from one man each ward to twelve and that the anti-machine should receive qualification, with the "old gang."

The one fact which did not come up at Newburgh, because Mr. Boyd was not present, and it being given out that he was sick, is that the anti-machine insist that he and Mr. Tompkins shall be retired from any and all leadership. This agreement must be reached before next fall, or "Ben" will be the next target of the anti-machine.

A PROWLER ON THE STOOP.

An Exciting Experience at a Highland Avenue Residence—Fred S. Rogers
Used His Pist and His Revolver on a Midnight Prowler, Who Was Probably Preparing for a Burglary.

When Fred S. Rogers returned to his home on Highland avenue, about midnight Saturday night, he discovered a man crouching behind a chair in an angle of the porch near the sitting room window.

As soon as the man saw that he was discovered he raised up and made a pass at Mr. Rogers, who, turning his course of leisure with Prof. Jester to good account, promptly countered on the fellow's jaw. He staggered back against the side of the house and then turned and ran off the end of the piazza.

Mr. Rogers had his revolver in his overcoat pocket and he drew it as quickly as possible and fired four times at the fellow as he dashed through bushes, grape arbors and other obstructions. It was so dark that Mr. Rogers could not see his mark and had to fire at the points from which the noise made by the fugitive came. He does not think that he hit the fellow.

Mr. Rogers says that the man was tall and broad shouldered. He wore no overcoat. Mr. Rogers approached the house across the lawn, so it is probably that the man did not hear him or see him until he was almost on the porch, and it was too late for the intruder to retreat. Mr. Rogers thinks that the man was committing the premises with a view to breaking into the house.

OBITUARY.

Matthew McKeeby Writer.

From an Onondaga Correspondent.

Matthew M. Writer, an aged and highly respected resident of this village, died at his home, Saturday last, within a few minutes of noon, of apoplexy. He was stricken on Monday, the 22d inst., and never recovered consciousness.

He was the son of Aaron and Elizabeth McKeeby Writer, and was the last surviving member of a family of fourteen children. He was born August 28th, 1809, on the old homestead now occupied by Benjamin F. Writer, a nephew of the deceased.

His grandfather, Cosper Writer, came from Germany and settled, in 1784, on the farm now occupied by Samuel Writer, and attended the great age of 107 years.
On January 31st, 1846 M. M. Writer was married to Miss Susan Van Slander, of Hudson, who died Dec. 22d, 1868.

The children of this union were Ar-mund, who died May 26th, 1863, and Ellen, wife of Edson Roney, of Eatontown, Aaron and George Emory Writer, of Oriskany, and Samuel E. Writer, of Cole-ville, N. J.

Cosper Writer was a pioneer in this section, and in 1774 he signed the revolutionary pledge. He died Nov. 15th, 1842.

Matthew Writer had lived at his late home for the last twenty-two years. He was a cooper by trade. He was Road Commissioner for eight years, and will be remembered by his fellow citizens.
He was a man of strict integrity,
and a valuable citizen.

The funeral will be held at his late residence on Tuesday, at 1 o'clock. Rev. R.
J. Diven will officiate.

ORANGE COUNTY MEN BUY HORSES

J. S. Murray Pays $1,000 for Jeffery at the Passaic sale—Other Purchases.

At the Passaic sale of horses, Saturday, J. S. Murray purchased the three-year-old chestnut colt Jeffery by Allerton—Ellen, by Avon, for $1,100, also Ben Bumble 2-28, ch. c., 1894, by Albion—Isabel, by Belmont, $535.

Other Orange county purchasers were
J. J. Chancy, of Newburgh, and C. C.
Condon of Walden. The former bought Heldrich, a bay filly by Allerton for $185 and the latter secured Monday, b. s.,
2-24, 1887 by Montgomery for $200.

Contest for Supervision.
The J. B. Reynolds' Record says H. Y.
Albion, the Republican candidate for Supervisor in the town of Lumberton, Sullivan county, at the recent election, will contest in the Supreme Court the election of his Democratic opponent, John L. Smith, who was elected after an election of the canvass of the inspectors of election of that town by a majority of one.

Grateful Acknowledgment.
Grate acknowledgment is extended to Dr. Talco and to Messrs. Wilson & Wood on the gift of turkeys to the Children's Home on Thanksgiving Day.

New Proprietor of the Ontario House.
Phinister Baker, formerly an O. and W. engineer, and later in charge of the stone crusher, has opened the Ontario House on Cott go street, formerly conducted by "Jack" Turvey, who died a few years ago.

His Worst Form.

"My daughter has been troubled with catarrh since she was four years old. She had the disease in its worst form and took medicine with no permanent result. She finally began taking Hood's Sagepilla and Hood's Pills and after a while the disagreeable symptoms entirely disappeared." M. W. SILSBY, Hart-

INCIDENTS AND HAPPENINGS IN GOSHEN

A Lively Sunday Night Row—A Horse's Leg Broken—Funeral of Mrs. McGrath —Social Tea—Night—Must Keep the Peace—Vocal Society's Concert—Services at St. John's—Bible sermon at St.
James'—Other Notes.

From the Onondaga Correspondent.

Greenwich street was the scene of a disgraceful row, Sunday night, in which a stone cutter thrashed a negro. Under other circumstances and at a different time the act might have been commendable. Although it was disgraceful it was intermingled with a fact, and it was witnessed by a large crowd, many of whom forgot the sanctity of the day in the interest of the scrap.

A carriage horse, driven by and belonging to R. T. Brown slipped at the corner of Church street and Murray avenue, yesterday afternoon, and fell breaking its right hind leg. The killing of the animal was necessary.

The funeral of Mrs. John McGrath was held at St. John's Church, at 9 o'clock, this morning. Her death occurred, Saturday, from consumption.
Her age was fifty-five years. Her husband survives her.

Hermon Cuddeback, of Buffalo, is visiting relatives in town.

The Goshen school side football team was defeated at Newburgh, Saturday.

Daniel McGarry and Jeremiah Carey were arraigned before Justice Swazy, Sunday, for violating the Raines law.
McCarthy insisted that Jerry induced him to drink and Jerry claimed that Mc-Carthy used a gun to induce him. Both were fined $3. McCarthy paid the money and Jerry was released on his promise to settle down within a stipulated time.

The Ladies' Aid Society's social will be held, this evening, at the home of Mr.
and Mrs. N. J. Kelsey. There will be music by home and other talent.

On complaint of "Jimmy" Callahan,
"Chick" Gleason was put under bonds, Saturday to keep the peace. Gleason had refused to pay "Jimmy" individually and to members of his family collectively.

Next Friday evening, the Goshen Vocal Society will under Group's Gallia and Messrs. Solomello. It will be the most finished and colored production the society has yet attempted. Reserved seats at Millington's, 50 cents, 75 cents and $1. Tickets bearing date Nov. 23d will be honored.

The Good Templars' entertainment and supper takes place to night, at Samuel's Hall.

A requiem high mass was said at St.
John's Church, this morning at 9 o'clock.
On Wednesday and Friday morning services will also be held.

Rev. George C. Betts, at St. James's Church, preached an able sermon, one of a series of four on the last articles of the creed. The sermon, last night, was concerning the "Communion of Saints."
